Teach and model

- engaging with texts that reflect the social and cultural groups to which students belong
- comparing experiences depicted in stories by wide-ranging world authors with own experiences
- engaging with texts that portray Australian family life in different settings across Australia; for example, suburban and remote settings

Check understanding

- Explain the main idea in share ideas about stories, poems and images in literature, reflecting... using an example.
- Show the idea in a second way: with words, a model, a diagram or symbols.
- Apply the idea to a short unfamiliar situation and justify the result.

Teaching cautions

- Ask the student to explain their choice, not only state an answer.
- Check that key vocabulary is understood in a new example.
- Mix representations so the skill is transferred rather than copied.

Quick lesson sequence

- Connect to prior knowledge and introduce the key vocabulary.
- Model one clear example, then solve a second example together.
- Finish with an independent check and a short student explanation.
