

First Nations Ways of Sharing

Name: _____

Date: _____

WORKED EXAMPLE

We acknowledge and learn about First Nations Australians' ways of representing and sharing observations -- through story, art, symbols, song and dance -- with respect.

Q1

Circle ways to share knowledge: stories, art, song, shouting over others.

Q2

Tick one: Knowledge can be shared through art and story [] or only in books [].

Q3

Fill the gap: We listen and learn with _____.

Q4

Match: story, art, song -- sing, tell, paint.

Q5

Draw a picture that shares something you observed in nature.

Q6

Share an observation at home using a drawing or story. Bring it to class.

Q7 CHALLENGE

Write one way people can share what they have observed.

One way to share: _____